

Alexandria Gazette.

TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 19, 1909.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Rises tomorrow at 7:15 and sets at 5:07.
High water at 6:28 a. m. and 6:42 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section partly cloudy and warmer tonight with minimum temperature about freezing. Wednesday possibly threatening rain; moderate southwesterly winds.

GEN. LEE'S BIRTHDAY.

This is Gen. Lee's birthday but with the exception of the closing of the banks and the giving of holiday to the schools and the shortening of hours in some of the public offices the business of the day has gone on about as usual. Tonight however the occasion will be appropriately observed at Lee Camp Hall where the camp will give its annual Lee birthday banquet. A large number of tickets have been sold and a large attendance is expected. The speakers will be Hon. John S. Williams, of Mississippi; Mr. John M. Johnson, of this city, and Mr. Henry T. Harrison, of Loudoun.

THE CIVIC IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE.

At the invitation of the Chamber of Commerce, the first meeting of the board of the Civic Improvement League was held at their rooms last night. Mr. Edward S. Leadbeater, president of the league, presided and other members of the board present were: Mrs. Wm. J. Booth, Misses Helen Cummings, Fanny Herbert, Rose M. McDonald, Messrs. Robert S. Jones, Julian Y. Williams, A. D. Brackett and Dr. Wm. M. Smith. Reports were received from the chairmen of the following committees: Schools, Mrs. Wm. J. Booth; streets, Miss Mary Carlin; press, Miss Rose McDonald; reception, Dr. Wm. M. Smith; membership, Mr. A. D. Brackett. The constitution was referred to a committee composed of Miss Cummings, Mr. Brackett and Mr. Williams. The organization of the league was discussed and plan of work outlined. The board then adjourned to meet again January 31 at the same place.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

Funeral services over the late Oscar H. Tubman will be held from the residence of his sister, Mrs. Wm. D. Wood, 201 north Columbus street, on Wednesday, January 20th, at 11 a. m. The pallbearers will be Frank T. King, Marshall L. King, Dr. Jas. R. Tubman, Kenneth Ogden, Jas. S. Taylor and P. F. Garman. Funeral and interment private. The services will be conducted by Rev. W. J. Morton and Edgar Carpenter.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Annie Ford Murphy, wife of Mr. Thomas Murphy, took place this morning from St. Mary's Church. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Outler and the pallbearers were Messrs. Charles Downey, John Henderson, Edward Brown, George Pettit, Arthur Hicks and Joseph Travers.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.

The evangelistic services now being conducted at the Trinity M. E. Church are well attended and considerable interest is being manifested. Rev. J. R. Bevier, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, occupied the pulpit last night. Rev. S. M. Alford, pastor of Grace M. E. Church, Washington, will preach tonight.

The revival services now in progress in the Free Methodist Church continue to be well attended. Interest in the meetings is growing steadily. There were two converts last night. Rev. F. Shoup and wife, of Pennsylvania, and Rev. Mr. Broadhead, an African missionary, will be present on Thursday night and assist the pastor, Rev. John Cavanaugh. Mr. Broadhead will exhibit stereopticon views of Africa.

OPERA HOUSE.

About two thousand people saw the big show at the Opera House last night. It was, without doubt, one of the best ever seen in this house. It seems almost impossible that the management can place before their patrons such a show for the small price of admission charged. Litley & Bell were charming entertainers in their laughing hit of the year. They kept the immense audience in a roar. Miss Lulu Golding charmed the people with her sweet voice. The pictures were of the finest specimens of art. Just as good, if not a better show tonight. A special programme has been arranged in honor of the birthday of General Robert E. Lee, during which a trio will render appropriate selections.

FINED TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS.

An employee of a butcher in the city market became so much incensed at a dog early this morning that he caught the canine and cut its throat. The yelling of the animal attracted general attention as it ran to and fro with blood rushing from its throat. The dog finally fell and expired. The man who had killed the dog was later arrested and brought before Justice Caton. The accused pleaded guilty to the charge, and in extension said the animal had no owner, that it was a tramp dog which virtually lived in the market and had occasioned considerable trouble and damage to butchers. Justice Caton fined the man $25.

RETAIL MERCHANTS.

A meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association of this city was held last night at the residence of Mr. W. P. Graves, on south Fairfax street. Steps were taken toward the disbandment of the association which is to be succeeded at an early date by another organization to be known as the "Retail Grocers' Association." There was a large attendance. Mr. Graves delightfully entertained the members during the evening.

WANT HINGED SMOKESTACKS.

Representative Carlin, a committee of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce, Mayor Palf and a committee of the Commissioners' Association appeared before the House of Representatives this morning and urged the members the necessity of compelling the owners of tugboats to place hinged smokestacks upon the boats and thereby prevent delay to trains by the constant opening and closing of the Highway bridge.

ALEXANDRIA AMUSEMENT CO.

There will be another interesting entertainment at this house tonight. The amusement lovers who attended last night enjoyed a rare treat. The silent pictures are "Weary's Xmas Dinner," "The Dancer and King" and "In Golden Days"—Indiana.

ELITE PICTURE CO.

As was expected the large crowd which attended the performance at this house last night were highly entertained. The pictures are the largest placed on canvas and of a quality which is sure to please. The special attraction for tonight, in addition to the moving pictures, will be tenor solos by Mr. J. Crocken. His fame as a singer is well known and he never fails to delight his hearers.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

John C. Ryan yesterday instituted proceedings in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia against his wife, Bessie J. Ryan, for absolute divorce. It is asserted in the bill that the couple were married by the late Rev. J. H. S. Ewell, in Alexandria, on September 11, 1905, and that they lived together until about July 21, 1907.

INJURED HIS LEG.

THE WEATHER.

The weather was cold again last night, and ice formed on the river from shore to shore. It did not, however, cause impediment to navigation, as steamers passing up and down soon broke it up and set it floating with the tide. The mercury early this morning was down to 14°.
